

I'm sorry we had to meet under these terrible tragic circumstances.

I'll never be able to repay you fully for all the support you have given me

You have given me strength during a time I thought would not come for many many years.

Thank You just doesn't seem enough for respecting Eddies wishes and giving him the well deserved send off you have arranged.

To Michael + Les

Thank You for all the support you have given me, Willow + all our family

Something really lovely that brought such a welcome touch is why this comes to tell you thank you very, very much

Love from
